

PCA FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

PCA are often asked recurring questions. This page should hopefully assist in guiding you.

1. In the first instance please search through the links at www.pcaofficial.com
2. The PCA pride themselves on our social media inter-action, please add us on Facebook at PCA or also PCA Competitor Discussion & Info. Our Instagram account is @pca_official. Our Twitter account is @Pca_official15
3. In a lot of requests we receive the information can be found with a simple web-search. Look on Google, YouTube or even Facebook with the search parameters of PCA etc,etc.
4. If you are asking a question specific to a certain show then please consider directing your question(s) to that particular show promoter.

Q. I've not received my membership card can I still compete?

A. Yes you can. Physical cards are no longer being issued to athletes as they were very problematic. We have a database of members that we check on show-day at Athlete's registration.

Q. I've not received a confirmatory email following my registration.

A. In all instances it is the promoter who will confirm show registration. If you've not received confirmation within a day or two please contact the individual show promoter directly.

Q. Where & when is Tanning or Make-up?

A. Each show has different Tanning & Make-up Organisations but are all contactable through the registration process on our website. If you are struggling to get a reply from these service providers then please contact the show promoter who will have more avenues of contact with them.

Q. Can I have post-show feedback from the judges?

A. The only formal feedback that will be given will be at the end of that specific show by the judges sat at the table. No feedback will be available in the days afterwards.

Q. Can I have my place as it wasn't announced at the show?

A. No. We have a policy of only giving placings as to what was announced on-stage.

Q. Where can I find post-show images?

A. All shows have a designated photographer and/or videographer. These service providers will be identified to you at the show. They will pass on their contact details to you but primarily all interaction should be through our social media streams.

Q. How do I get selected for International events?

A. To be selected to represent PCA UK overseas you will typically be a high standard Athlete with a proven pedigree & recent high placings at our domestic shows.

Q. I'm not sure which class to compete in.

A. Take a look on-line where there are literally hours of video footage & hundreds of images from previous shows. We can guide & suggest what we feel is best, however the responsibility to register & follow the criteria lies with the athlete alone.

Q. I've registered in the wrong class, what can I do?

A. As long as you're registered for that specific show then you do not have to worry. We can move you within classes at the registration desk on the day of the show. The athlete still carries the responsibility to have correct stage-wear, music, routines & know the compulsory poses required for that class.

Q. Can I get a refund?

A. Broadly speaking, no. We are prepared to carry your membership or entry fee over to another future event if circumstances warrant it. Obviously we will take individual circumstances into account.

Q. Can I register on the day?

A. No. You must pre-register on-line at www.pcaofficial.com

Q. Can I take someone backstage with me?

A. Broadly speaking, no. Some shows may allow it however it is actively discouraged for reasons of security, Athlete comfort & overcrowding. If in doubt speak to the individual show promoter.

Q. I have someone coming to watch me but isn't interested in the rest of the show. Do they still have to buy a full ticket?

A. Yes.

Q. Can I buy a ticket on the door?

A. We will never give a guarantee of ticket availability, our suggestion is that you ALWAYS buy in advance from the designated avenues.

Q. Where can I park, what are the nearest hotels, & where can I go for food afterwards?

A. These requests (and similar) should normally be directed to the show promoter who ideally has already given this information in confirmatory emails to competitors.
